

Isola Sofa By Amura

VOYAGER

"Isola: a future icon."

Designed by: Lucy Kurrein.

Isola is a statement-making, design-led collection consisting of a sofa, armchair and matching ottomans. The sweeping lines and elegant silhouette are reminiscent of the large stretches of sand you can find on a deserted beach. The voluptuous, sculptural form of Isola has a natural affinity with the body, and its organic form sits beautifully in large and small spaces. The Isola range uses a mixture of different foam fillings, including a luxury memory foam, offering supreme comfort and support. The backrest features subtle seam detailing to emphasize its curvaceous silhouette and its generous seat is supported by refined metal legs in gun metal black. The small and large ottoman echoes the shape of the armchair and sofa creating a beautiful synergy between the pieces.
