

Moss By Calligaris

VOYAGER

“Individual mirrors and shelves combine to create a unique and practical wall feature.”

The mirror with modular elements and bevelled edge, can be combined in different multi directional compositions to form either a tidy or chaotic style. Each piece can be placed next to each other in different directions, making it impossible to recognize the outline and the repetition of each composition.

Combine the mirror and metal shelf elements to create a useful and visual combination.

Moss is fixed to the wall with magnets.
