

Noa By Amura

VOYAGER

"Blooms like a fleshy flower designed with essential lines."

Designed by Stefano Bigi

It is the softness that characterises Noa, so full and florid that embodies the very concept of comfort. Soft are the sinuous lines of the ergonomic back frame, seemingly as delicate as a petal, but actually a solid shell that can encase the substantial dimensions of the seat, and give stability to the whole structure. It's a game of joints and volumes, of full and empty, taking shape with Noa, which translates in an irresistible invitation to lay back. Ready to fit into any kind of ambient, from the living room to the bedroom, to lounges of strong personality. Noa is made even more versatile by the possibility to match the leather back frame with cushions both in leather or fabric.
