

Omnia Ceramic Extension Table By Calligaris

VOYAGER

"Care-free dining with the ultra durable and stainproof Ceramic super-surfaces. Integrating easy to use extending functionality like never before"

Made in Italy in a range of colours and finishes.

Designed by STC Italy.

Extending table entirely made of wood and suitable for dining rooms. Stylish and functional, Omnia allows you to seat unexpected guests in complete comfort thanks to its Calligaris patented opening mechanism.

The extension system involves pulling out the frame and twisting the concealed extension leaf into place in just a few simple steps. The table top is raised 10mm above the legs to create an effect that is both striking and attractive.

Available in:

160cm x 90cm version, extending to 220cm

180cm x 100cm version, extending to 240cm

220cm x 100cm version, extending to 280cm
