The collection of Staker coffee tables, designed by Robin Rizzini, combines architectural grandeur with functional elegance. The structure takes its inspiration from the principles of pilotis construction: four slender pillars delicately connect two surfaces in an architectural equilibrium that has a modernist feel and blends form with function.

Finishes: It's available in three finishes: Eucalyptus, Grey wood and lacquered glass for the round table, three sizes and three heights.
